a different point of view

June 4th, 2023

Thank you for contacting me.
It will be my pleasure to guide you in Jerusalem.

General:

In our tour, we shall unveil the exciting historical layers of Jerusalem and will understand its complexity and beauty.

The tour will be made through the eyes of an 8th generation “Sabra” (Israeli born) whose forefathers came to the land more than two hundred years ago.

The way to Jerusalem

On the way, a general background about Israel and the about the historical developments of the last century will be given.

Mount Scopus

Here we meet sharp and dramatic change in the landscape.

We shall look at the Judean Desert and review its geographical, historical and spiritual ties to Jerusalem (aprox. 20-minute stop).

Painting by Ludwig Blum

Mount of Olives

This is a wonderful observation point.

I shall give here an historical background about the city and we shall view its major sites. (30-60-minute stop). An option is to visit the Church of Gethsemane as well – the place of agony of Christ or an atmospheric historical cave.

Lions Gate

We shall enter the Old City by foot and have a brief history of the events happened here throughout the history.

The Moslem Quarter

This is the largest section of the old city. We shall observe Dome of the Rock to get a full understanding of the history of one of the most stunning structures of the city.

We shall discuss the Moslem Heritage of Jerusalem.

Via Dolorosa

Walk along part of the route Christ did from the place of trial by Pontus Pilatus until the Golgotha hill - the crucifixion and burial site.

Church of the Holy Sepulcher

An amazing and exciting site. Here according to an ancient tradition, Jesus Christ was crucified, died, buried and resurrected.

We shall see several important corners inside this complex and multi-layer church.

Lunch

In the old city – starting around 13:00

Kotel (Western Wall)

The Kotel – last remain of the external Jewish Temple complex.

The symbol of the belongings of the Jewish people to their land and roots.

Here our tour will end. We will return to the Tel Aviv
