

Call for Papers

Industrial Organization, Regulation and Competition Policy in Israel

("Ninth Annual Israeli I.O. Day")

Supported by the Sapir Forum & Collier School of Management, Tel Aviv University

Conference Webpage: <http://israelioday.weebly.com/>

Monday, 16.12.2019

Location: Collier School of Management, Tel Aviv University

Keynote speaker: Joel Waldfogel (Minnesota University)

Invited speakers: Joao Montez (Lausanne) & Claudia Garcia-Robles (Stanford GSB)

Organizers: Prof. Itai Ater (Tel Aviv University), Dr. Yair Antler (Tel Aviv University)

The Ninth Israeli I.O. day will be held at Tel Aviv University on Monday, December 16th 2019. The continuing goal of this workshop is to bring together researchers engaged in both theoretical and empirical research in the area of Industrial Organization. Both faculty and students are welcome.

The workshop is held under the title "Industrial Organization, Regulation and Competition Policy in Israel." While this title is meant to encourage submissions that are relevant to competition policy and regulation, all papers in the area of industrial organization are welcome. For past programs, see the workshop's website at <http://israelioday.weebly.com/>.

To submit a paper (or an extended abstract), please send it until September 20th. Notifications about paper acceptance will be made by mid-October.

We will send more details regarding registration to the workshop as the date nears.

For paper submissions, and additional details please contact us:

Itai Ater: ater@post.tau.ac.il

Yair Antler: yairantl@post.tau.ac.il