Housing

UTDT is a non-residential campus. Accepted students receive information about different accommodation options in their acceptance packages. Also, through a closed Facebook group students may find roommates and receive recommendations from current and past incoming students. Preferred student neighborhoods are: Belgrano, Cañitas, Palermo, and Recoleta.

Health insurance

A comprehensive Argentine health insurance is mandatory to register at UTDT. The University suggests that students obtain the insurance offered by William Hope.

Immigration

Students will need to obtain a visa prior to entering Argentina. Please refer to this link for further information.

Buenos Aires

Known as the Paris of Latin America partly due to its architectural beauty, the city is a welcoming hub for international students. Recognized as the "Top City in Latin America in the Global Talent Competitiveness Index" (INSEAD, Adecco, Human Capital Leadership Institute) and the "Most Global City in Latin America" (AT Kearney Global Cities Ranking 2016), it is one of the world's richest cities for theatre and bookstores, and also a major destination for art, tango, gastronomy, night life and sports.
